Prepare for War in Time of that were suffered. Peace in Speech at the Willard Banquet Last Night-Former Secretary Herbert Also Is Heard,

In an address delivered last night at the triennial banquet of the General Sohad at one time during the period of the have continued fighting. They will still continue. The first wars were predatory Ambassador Jusserand was called upon nflicted more injury than did the Pagans. ances and resentment. History tells us that wars of conquest were followed by the wars caused by disputes over trade relations.

Speaks of First Wars.

"All of these struggles, event the last converse."

"All of these struggles, except the last courtesy mentioned, have ceased to be possible in this age. This type of war cannot cease. There is not a nation on earth to-day that will not fight for its trade, which means its life, its existence. England has 25 persons to the square mile, The that brought freedom. Truly ideal United States has only 26. It is not possi-ble for England to support her masses when all was darkness; men, who had without foreign trade. It may come to courage when despair stared them in the pass in the lives of our children, that fac-

"It is not hard to foresee that this country cannot exist in years to come the United States."
without foreign trade. What is necessary A toast to the Fre the problem centuries ago, when she

Covered with Stations, ountry has more national advantages, and is endowed with most prosperous conwe arrive at the conclusion that Bismarck was not joking. The Hawaiian Islands forefathers? were almost forced upon us. We now recognize the same group as a blessing in 'We indulge in hot air. It is a national habit. We are swelled with pride was the election of officers for the ensuing at the recent great feat of our magnificent fleet in rounding the Horn. Gentlemen, the question is: Could the same fleet perform the same feat in time of war? I answer no. Some have said that before war comes, the Panama Canal will have been completed. Providence may interfere in our behalf. "England's fleet alone could make that voyage in war time, when all neutral ports would be closed. This country has only one or two coaling stations.

Fleet in the Pacific.

the trade of China. In 1905 there was a trar general. greater tonnage of trade that passed in a jingo element in Japan that did need it; an element that would, if it could, provoke that country to war with us.

"At Manila, counting in fleet and shore batteries, the Spaniards, in the weight of Burlingham, Rhode Island; Elliot L. Butler, New Jork; R. P. Brodhead, Pennsylvania; B. W. B. Brown, New York; metal thrown and reckoning on the stead- York iness of shore batteries, were our superiors; but thanks to the splendid abilities of our great admiral, Dewey, and the colness of his officers and men, our victory was almost bloodless. At Santiago every commanding officer it remains to be said that the most signal, the most arduous, and the most of, and every officer and man on, every ship did his duty nobly. All this the country at large thoroughly understands; yet efficient service the American navy ever rendered to the American people has not yet come to be fully appreciated in any volume of American history I have ever

"I mean its service during the civil war. Every historian recites that in the civil war the navy always did its duty brave y; that it accomplished this and that, but no historian has taken up the threads of its achievements to weave them together and show, what I have heretofore often asserted and now maintain, that but for the services rendered by the navy the Confederacy would have won its independence and the Union would have been dissolved.

proud to say that I did my duty to the Mag of the Confederacy so long as it floated. Since that day I have become, and am now proud to say so, that I am as loyal to the union of these States and as devoted to its perpetuity as any citizen who never was outside of it. 't was from my standpoint as a Confed- $20-922 E STREET.

ciety of the Sons of the American Revo- war more than 52,000 officers and men. lution at the New Willard, at a time Few of these have been writers, and not Bell interrupted by applause. When he had concluded, he was greeted with cheers lasting several minutes. Standing.

M. Jusserand replied that the first toast of the evening should be to the memory of the evening should be to the memory of the Father of His Country, George Washington. The toast was drunk in silence.

Ohio; Henry D. Spears, New York; M. G. Spears, N

After the toast, a table, on which was Maj. Bell began his address by telling a large silver service, was placed in front of the first wars recorded in history, when groups of men, living comfortably seen that the family coat-of-arms of in a sheltered valley, were attacked by James Mortimer Montgomery, general secretary of the society, were engraved n each of the twelve different pieces. Mr. "I have a serious message. Statistics Montgomery, who was seated at a near-show, as nearly as can be learned, that by table, made a speech of acceptance, 6,680,060,000 men have died in battle. Not-withstanding this grewsome record, men preciation of the gift. "For He's a Jolly in nature, followed by religious wars, in which, according to records, Christians "Years ago, before our forefathers crossed the Atlantic, they used to dine Next came the wars of national aggran-dizement, and the wars of national griev-conclusion of the feast. History tells us

> Part Played by France, "Never did more galiant knights nor braver heroes engage in battle than those who fought for this nation in the war her population with only her own re-to come to this country and aid the sources. All nations have learned that patriots in their struggle. He was the thirteen States, they are to-day among of gloom over the Arsenal last night, to maintain this trade? England solved lowed by the singing of the "Marseilles." |

the problem centuries ago, when she | Attorney General Bonaparte was introduced as the man who fights for the Constations for her fleets in all parts of the stitution in the highest court of the wered with the names of these stations We were a small people in the days of the rose to the surface a second time he call-"When we stop to consider that this great. It is the problem of to-day be 79 Clinton street, Brooklyn, N. Y. whether or not the men of to-day possess the ability to make a great nation greater. Will our deeds be commemorated as we commemorate the deeds of our

Election of Officers. The principal business disposed of yesterday morning at the business meeting three years, as follows: John Lee Carroli, of Maryland, for presdent general; Edmund Wetmore, of New York, first vice president general; Wilson G. Harvey, of South Carolina, second vice president general; James Mortimer Mont-gomery, of New York, secretary general; Prof. William Libbey, of New Jersey, assistant secretary general; Richard McC. Cadwallader, of Pennsylvania, treasurer general: Henry Cadle, of Iowa, assistant treasurer general; Rev. Edward Everett The list of those pesent includes:

SPEAKERS' TABLE.

The list of those posent includes:

For the most of the most of thoughough than in any other port of the world. China's wealth has only been scratched.

For the most of the world. China's wealth has only been scratched.

For the most of the world. China's wealth has only been scratched.

For the most of the world. China's wealth has only been scratched.

For the most of the world. China's wealth has only been scratched.

For the world of the world. China's wealth has only been scratched.

For the world of t

B. Cassatt, U. S. A.; W. P. Chamberlain, Tennessee; Hilary R. Chambers, New York; Hon. P. T. Chapman, Missouri; Horace A. Chayne, Pennaylvania; L. P. Clephane, District of Columbia; J. Wray Cleveland, New York; F. G. Cooper, Pennaylvania; W. L. Cowan, New York; W. V. Cox. District of Columbia; Hon. J. P. Cozzens, Rhode Island; C. I. Cragin, Pennsylvania; Commander Culver, U. S. N. D-Capt. Milton F. Davis, U. S. A.; E. H. Dickinson, Massachusetts; A. S. Dodge, Missouri; Henry Russell Drowne, New York.
E--Commander Frank H., Eldridge, U. S. N., Connecticut; Alfred Ely, New York.
F-J. H. Fisher, Pennsylvania; J. C. Foote, Illinois; Rev. D. R. Foster, New Jersey; Malcolm Franklin, Pennsylvania

G-P. H. Gadsden, South Carolina; R. C. Geer, New York. H. H. Gillam, Pennsylvania; Lieut. J.

Merchants' Transfer & Storage Co.

that were suffered.

"Since the civil war attention has remained riveted upon these same land battles because more than 2,000,000 men, first and last, were in the armies of the Union, and these and their neighbors and friends have been the writers and readers of the history of the civil war.

"The motion will be made on some of the committee?" suggested Mr. Culberson. "The motion will be made on some of Columbia, Rear Admiral John F. Merry, U. S. N., Massachusetts; David Milne Pennsylvania; J. F. Minis, Georgia; J. M. Mentgomery, New York; C. Morton Maryland; S. L. Munson, New York; W. C. Myers, bill penalizing railroads for falling to furpless of the civil war.

"The motion will be made on some of these bills before the session comes to a chusetts; David Milne Pennsylvania; J. F. Minis, Georgia; J. M. Mentgomery, New York; C. Morton Maryland; S. L. Munson, New York; W. C. Myers, bill penalizing railroads for falling to furpless of the civil war.

lution at the New Willard, at a time when the past conquests of the nation and the glories of her heroes were being renewed, Maj. Gen. J. Franklin Bell, U. S. A., declared that the trade of the success of the Union arms."

United States and the future prosperity of the country are in danger from foreign nations, because of the lack of sufficient coaling stations and harbors of refuge on the sees for the ships of the savy.

Only on one or two occasions was Gen. Bell interrupted by applause. When he had concluded, he was greeted with the chivalry characteristic of his race, by the toastmaster of his race, and not one of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results of the services they rendered, ever consideration of the results. New York, I. T. Orme, Georgia.

New York, I. T. Orme, Georgia.

New York, I. T. Orme, Georgia.

New York, Edmund Pendleton, New York, E.—W. Edmund, Pennsylvania, Dr. C. R. Bobinson, Rhode Island; Dunbar Rowland, Alabama; Lieut. Col. David J. Rumbough, U. S. A.; Philip Ruxton, New York, I. S. P. P. P. B. Sands, District of Columbia; T. Shannon, Missouri, J. Sheldon, District of Columbia; T. Shannon, Missouri, J. She

H. Hammett Fines, Ribous Island.

-H. L. Underwood, Tennessee.

-James Van Dyk, New York; J. B. Van Woert W .- Hon. E. R. Walker, New Jersey; Henry D.

TRAGIC DEATH FOR NAZAREK

When It Was Too Late They Went to His Assistance-Member of U. S. Hospital Corps.

near the Arsenal yesterday afternoon, pared to accept him as a candidate.

stitution in the highest court of the land. Mr. Bonaparte said:

"The purpose of this banquet is to recall to Americans of to-day, what the Americans of yesterday did for America."

"Americans of yesterday did for America."

"He occupies to-day a position more similar to that of a monarch than that of a monarch than that of an executive. The people are his people and he is responsible for their domes-

SURGEON McLEAN REPORTS. Army Officer Says 200 Persons in

Mississippi Need Attention, Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry yesterday received a report from Passed Assistant Surgeon Norman T. McLean, of the naval station at New Orleaens, who to Mississippi to aid the local doctors in caring for the injured. Dr. McLean's report is dated Hattiesburg, Miss., and says:

"Hattiesburg has now some 200 persons Fleet in the Pacific.

Hale, D. D., chaplain general; Capt. long and about one mile wide. Reports appointed in place of Charles Fairbanks, "There is great need of getting our fleet William G. McCaoe, of Virginia, historian still arriving from outlying districts show whose nomination was rejected on an unin the Pacific Ocean. This nation wants general, and Walter Gilman Page, regis- that all injured have not yet been reached. Local resources practically depleted. Cross to take charge. I advise such ac-by Miss Dona McCracken, of 1341 Fourenth street northwest. Miss McCracken had the machine inder perfect control until she reached dangerous curve near Varnum street. When she endeavored to avoid a lision with a street car, the autom swerved to one side and precipitated the vehicle into a ditch, where the women

Mrs. Allyn K. Capron announces a military hop to be given at the Washington Barracks on May 5. The following women have been named to take charge of the affair: Mrs. J. Franklin Bell, Mrs. O'Reilly, Mrs. R. L. Taylor, Mrs. Hannis Tayor, and the Misses Abbott, Heyl, Garlington, Granger, Sessions, Downing, Portner, Pierce, Adee and Byard.

Give Benefit Entertainment,

Polk Miller, well known Southern storyteller, entertained a large audience last night at Odd Felows' Hall, in Seventh street, assisted by four negro singers and a buck and wing dancer. The proceeds of the entertainment will be applied to the benefit fund of Canton Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F.

Will Get an Ostensorium.

It is announced that an expensive stensorium will be presented to St Matthew's Church in the near future. The vessel will be exposed in the church only PHONE M. 659. the sacred rites of the Catholic service.

PLEADS FOR A NAVY

| erate, I first saw and appreciated the full force of the blows that were being struck of force of the blows that were being struck at the Confederacy by the United States navy, and in the light of history I see that were surgered.

| Gen. Bell Addresses Sons of the Union can justly lay claim. Their forces, every American is proud of, whether he was in the Union or the Confederate army.

| Should Get Coaling Stations | Should Get Coaling up to these surrendered. Leading up to these surrendered. The many of the union and kirby smith surrendered. Leading up to these surrendered. The many loop hand. Public attention at the time was focussed upon these land battles, because of the appalling losses that were suffered.

| Should Get Coaling Stations | Should Get Coaling | Should Get

Pennsylvania.

N-F. E. Nichols, West Virginia; H. F. Nixon, in the cars to transport stock. The School of the cars to transport stock. The School of the cars to transport stock. The School of the cars to transport stock. New Jersey.

O-Robert Olyphant, New York; Talbot Olyphant, consent for the consideration of the r

Republican Leaders.

New Jersey Member Who Once Roasted Bryan Takes New Tack. Now Assails President.

Bryan by his party.

Monday. He mentioned the young Jer- trict, which was stricken out by the sey man as the one Representative who Senate subcommittee, was passed over had not bowed his neck to Bryan's yoke, by the Senate without a word of remon but he said it was no sure thing that he strance at the action of the subcommittee would now repeat his utterances, "after sitting several months at the feet of the minority leader, of the heir apparent, Champ Clark, and the heir presumptive, Ollie James.'

While he said nothing about Bryan, Mr. Leake clearly indicated by a warm criti-covered by the crew of the Vigilant, and ers. His motives are known to be good. determine prom removed to the morgue. The tragic death There is a power about the man which tained his position.

thirteen States, they are to-day among the Arsenal last night.

The United States."

A toast to the French diplomat was followed by the singing of the "Marseilles."

T. W. Cashill, G. A. Smith, and H. G. States who have been all was added in the bill, the earth and the end of his energy is nowhere in sight. People from all walks of life have turned to him with their grievances. Citizens who have been committee amendment providing for an endowed by the singing of the "Marseilles."

T. W. Cashill, G. A. Smith, and H. G. Sines added in the bill, the earth and the end of his energy is nowhere in sight. People from all walks of life have turned to him with their grievances. Citizens who have been committee amendment providing for an endown of the states. Davis. He had been swimming for more knocking in vain at the doors of Congress auditor and license inspector was stricken manner. The people need a rest and tory grounds when they have recovered from this Reand less Roosevelt domination.'

CLEAR UP NOMINATIONS.

was one of the naval surgeons ordered Senate Confirms All Those Which

Are Not Objected To. During a brief executive session yes terday the Senate confirmed nearly all complement. requiring medical and surgical attention the pending uncontested nominations. for some weeks. Hattiesburg itself dam- Some of those disposed of had been pendaged, but being used as central head- ing for several weeks, notably the nomiquarters for wounded. Great destitution nation of Joab N. Patterson to be penthroughout a district some fifty miles sion agent at Concord, N. H. He was long and about one mile wide. Reports appointed in place of Charles Fairbanks, favorable report from the Committee on Relief committee request National Red Pensions, submitted by Senator Burnham. Fairbanks was recommended by Wins-

Under the direction of President James Flynn, the Gaelic School held its regular meeting at the Carroll Institute Hall last evening. The school has been divided into three classes for the teaching of the

MOTH INSURANCE

Uniforms, furs, clothing, rugs, &c., deposited in our dry cold storage rooms will be insured against moth theft, and fire, and they will be protected also from dust and wrinkle

Send for Illustrated Booklet and Trunks of clothing, $4 to $8 for six menths, according to size. Fur sets, jackets, &c., $1.50 for six months-valuation, $50 or less; additional valuation, $1 per $100.

Security Storage Company

Successors to Storage Department American Security and Trust Co. Furniture Warehousemen. Packers and Forwarding Agents.

Capital and Surplus $415,000.

1140 15th Street.

DISTRICT BILL PASSED

day to get consideration in the Senate for Local Budget Is Amended by the Senate.

GAS PRICES NOT DISCUSSED

Item for Improving Sixteenth Street Doubled and Money for Bathing Beach and Playgrounds Made Immediately Available-Several Salaries of Officials Are Raised, Carrying substantially $2,000,000 more han when it passed the House, the Disrict appropriation bill was passed by the Senate late yesterday, after about two hours had been given to its consideration. The changes made on the floor were not great. Several committee amendments were stricken out and a few items were added, including one proposed by Senator Carter, providing an appropriation of $40,000 for the improvement of Sixteenth street northwest, for which purpose the bill as reported from the committee carried half that sum. Senator Carter's Representative Leake Goes After amendment contained a proviso that the bridge over Piney Branch on Sixteenth street should be made as wide as the roadbed and sidewalks of the street.

Change Names of Avenues,

An amendment proposed by Senator Bacon was adopted. It propose to change the name of Brightwood avenue to Georgia avenue, and the name of the present W.-Hon. E. R. Walker, New Jersey; Henry D. Warren, Massachusetts; Hon. H. V. Washington, Georgia; Ethan Allen Wesver, Pennsylvania; J. W. Weeks, Massachusetts; Maj. P. W. West, Missouri; J. H. Westfall, Massachusetts; Hon. J. B. White, Missouri; C. B. Whittlesey, Connecticut; Dale Wilson, Pennsylvania; J. A. Wilson, Maryland; L. B. Wilson, New York; Maj. F. A. Winter, U. S. A., Wilson, New York; Maj. F. A. Winter, U. S. A., Missouri; J. H. Wood, New York; Frederick S. Woodruff, New York; Henry G. Woodruf Georgia avenue to Naval avenue. Senator connect with the District sewers.

The amendment placed in the bill by

His latest effort, which was strictly the House, reducing to 75 cents per regular," justified the assertion by Rep- thousand cubic feet, the price of gas esentative Rodenberg in his speech of furnished for school purposes in the Disin striking it out.

Burkett Amendment Fails,

Senator Burkett tried, without success to Mave incorporated an amendment providing that no teacher of group A shall be jumped to group B until he or she shall have reached the maximum salary cism of President Roosevelt, of whom he in the lower grade. He declared that said, he was one of the earliest Demo- teachers getting the smaller salaries in Seized with cramps while swimming cratic admirers, that he was fully pre- the lower grade are jumped over the heads of others to the upper grade and hen all was darkness, men, who had near the Arsenal yesterday afternoon, pared to accept him as a candidate.

"The people have long ago made it unpopular to be a reactionary," he said, popular to be a reactionary," he said, "and they are beginning to undeceive which he was one, said Senator Burkett. Senator Gallinger maintained that effi-ciency, and not priority, of service should

A chief inspector of street sweeping, at His ambition extends to the ends of the $1.400 a year, was added in the bill, the to rine. In the insurance department the committee amendment providing for an covered with the names of these stations owned by Great Britain. How many has the United States? I sometimes think we have forgotten the policy of him, who was 'first in war, first in peace, and first in war, first in war, first in peace, and first in war, first in war, first in war, first in peace, and first in war, first in war, first in peace, and first in war, first in war, first in war, first in peace, and first in war, first i was first in war, first in peace, and first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen. To bank account. We had in those days bank account. in this new land, dignity, poise, and a respect for the few traditions of our land.

"The Roosevelt policies are based upon the inherent dishonesty of mankind. They are absolutely false and they are applied trunk sewer in the valley lying north of a most dangerous and unfortunate T street and south of the Naval Observa-

The appropriations of $10,000 each for pools at the bathing beach and for maintenance, equipment, and supervision playgrounds were made immediately available. An amendment was adopted allowing the Commissioners to appoint a sufficient number of police privates to bring the platoons of the force up to their full Increase Judge's Salary.

The salary of the judge of the Juvenile fourt was increased, by an amendment submitted by Senator Gallinger, from FREAS-On Monday, April 27, 1908, CLARA $3,000 a year to $3,500. An effort to do this $3,000 a year to $3,500. An effort to do this was made in the House, but failed. The salary of the property clerk at the Washington Asylum was also increased from $1,000 to $1,200. In the militia appropriations the salary of the clerk in the office of the adjutant general was increased

John Norris, of the New York Times who continued on the stand, defended Mr. Ridder, stating that the figures for warded to Congress by the Director of the Census were utterly contrary to the facts. In a letter addressed to Chairman Mann. Melville E. Stone disclaims personal responsibility for the demand made at a ecent meeting of members of his assoation that Congress pass a law forcing wood pulp and print paper on the free ist. The demand was adopted at a meeting in which 774 daily newspapers were represented. Mann that he directed a letter to every member of the House suggesting that as the committee of inquiry desired to com-plete its work as soon as possible that the names of users of paper or manufacturers of wood pulp or paper who desire to testify to pertinent facts should be filed as soon as possible,

Mr. Norris said he understood the Hearst papers purchased one-third of the output of the International Paper Company, and that the street gossip that the price paid for it was $1.94, $1.95, and $1.96. Witness was asked if Mr. Hearst was a member of the Publishers' Association. He said he did not know. The committee announced during the progress of Mr. Norris' testimony the ousiness managers of the Hearst papers in New York would be summoned

According to Mr. Norris, enough spruce timber exists in the province of Quebec alone to furnish wood pulp for the consumption of all the newspapers in the knowledge. The information came to him second hand.

TO-DAY

A rare opportunity to have a hat made-now that best materials are here at bargain prices, and the milliners fully recovered from the exhausting work incidental to the Easter demand.

An Interview Requested.

Miss Dell, the millinery chief, lately from New York, reports marked changes in the vogue, and will be glad to impart the new ideas to her visitors. The following are included among the purchases made in New York, which comprise rarely good bargains:

This Hat, $2.25

The newly acquired feathersbought and offered at greatly reduced prices-permit the making of this hat at a very moderate cost.

$7.50 Plumes, $5.50. $2.00 Aigrettes, $1.75.

The ostrich plumes are 18 inches long and very full, the fashion of today. The osprey aigrettes are in straight and sweeping effects. Black,

$2 Hat; 98c Without Trimming.

A $2 Sailor Hat until now to be 98c to-day. The roses, if selected from among the lately acquired samples, will cost you here the usual prices.

$1 Roses, 50c.

The Palais Royal's estimate of their value is $1-they'll cost you $1.25 and more at the milliner's.

> Untrimmed Hats, 68c to $2.25. Worth $1.00 to $3.50.

aged twenty-eight years, ervices at 34 Randolph place northwest Wed-nesday at 3 p. m. Interment at West Chester, Pa. (Philadelphia papers please copy.)

HASLER—On Monday, April Z, 1998, at 1:35 a. m., at his residence, 228 Fourteenth street southwest, RUDOLPH, beloved husband of Sarah J. Hasler, in the sixty-eighth year of his age.

Funcral Wednesday at 2 o'clock from his late residence. Relatives and friends invited to at-

HOLTON-On Monday, April 27, 1908, at 11:55 a. m., at her home, 74 Defrees street northwest, MARGUERITE, the beloved daughter of Mrs. Catharine Holton. Funeral services at St. Augustine's Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, where solemn requiem mass will be said for the repose of her soul. Friends invited to attend.

LOUNSBURY—On Menday, April 27, 1908, at 3 p. m., at his residence, in Falls Church, Va., ALBERT E. LOUNSBURY, aged eighty-three years, eleven months, three days.
Funeral from the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. LOVEDAY-On Monday, April 27, 1908, at 3 a. m., JAMES P., beloved husband of Florence V. Loreday.

Funeral from Wisa establishment Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Requiem mass at St. Stephen's Church. (Faltimore papers please

1005% Third street northeast, Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock; thence to St. Aloysias' Church, where requirem mass will be said for the repose of her soul. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. Interment at Holy Rood

WARREN-Departed this life on Sunday, April 26 1998, at 12:45 p. m., at her residence, 14 Kerney street, Tennallytown, D. C., in full faith SUSAN, beloved wife of Edward Warren, and

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

FUNERAL DESIGNS. FUNERAL FLOWERS

United States for the next 200 years. Witness did not know this of his own

These line fitting glasse tism causes

o ge

*gand!

a thin suit so as to have $25 up style and character. Order $25 up

Modern Tailor. 706-708 9th St.

Christian Xander's uedesheimer

$5 dez. qts. $6.50 24 pts. 60c. qt. only Christian Xander's

All advertising contracts made by The Washington Herald are based upon its bona fide circulation—a circulation in Washington larger by thousands than was white, and all colors.

The entire remaining stock and samples from New York's leading imorter assure best of flowers. $2.50 instead of $5.00 for the finest wreaths of American Beauty Roses mortal eyes ever beheld; $1.25 instead of $2.50 for the most superb single specimens of American Beauty Roses; 50c instead of $1.00 and $1.25 for bunches of American Beauty Roses, White Lilacs, and all the wanted scarce flowers; 11c for the usual 50c buflowers and foliage.

The Palais Royal, G St., 11th

BAXTER-On Tuesday, April 28, 1908, at 1 a. m., at Sibley Memorial Hospital, GEORGE JACK-SON, husband of Dorothy Houchen Baxter, Pa. (Prinageipnis pagers please copy.)

BUTLER-On Sunday, April 26, 1998, at 10 p. m.,

JOSIE A., beloved wife of Dr. John F. Butler, and daughter of James and Winifred Cooney,
in her twenty-fifth year.

Funeral from her late residence, 505½ Fifth street northeast, Wednesday at 7.85 s. m. Internent at Elkridge, Md. (Waterloo, Iowa, and Baltimore papers please copy.)

DAVIS-On Sunday, April 25, 1908, at 6:35 p. m., at Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. MARTHA E. DAVIS, aged sixty-seven years, widow of J. N. W. Davis, Puneral on Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. from 2028 G street northwest. Friends and relatives in-G street northwest.

Freas.
Funeral, private, from her late residence, 615½
M street northwest, on Wednesday at 2 p. m.
Kindly omit flowers. (Pittsburg, Pa., and Akron, Ohio, papers please copy.)

McDONOUGH-On Sunday, April 28, 1808, at 9:17
a. m., after a short illness, BRIDGET, widow of Patrick McDonough, in the sixty-third year of her age.

Puneral will take place from hy december of the place of the pla

MORGAN-On Monday, April 27, 1908, at 11:45 a. m., SUSAN, beloved wife of E. L. Morgan. Funeral from her late residence, 1355 Emerson street northeast, Wednesday at 8:45 a. m. Relatives and friends respectfully invited to attend. OLCOTT—At his residence, 2006 R street northwest, at 6:45 p. m., Monday, April 27, 1938, JOHN H. OLCOTT, in the fifty-cighth year of his age. Funeral private at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, April 29.

four daughters.

Funeral from Rock Creek Baptist Church, Ten rallytown, D. C., at 3 p. m., Wednesday nallytown, D. C., at 3 p. m., Wed Relatives and friends invited to attend.

GEORGE P. ZURHORST. 201 East Capitol Street.

GUDE, PHONE M, 4278. 1214 F ST. NORTHWEST.

005

Proper Astigmaor examination.
TICIAN,
Street

GEO. E. HEBBARD,

Quality 909 7th St. Phone Main 274.

BRING RESULTS newspaper at the Capital. Its books are

As a Confederate. "I was a Confederate soldier, and am